

ERICA SIGURDSON

BIOGRAPHY

Erica Sigurdson is not only a twice-nominated standup comedian for Best Female Standup in Canada, but also a Leo Award winning writer for her work on The 21st Annual Gemini Awards with co-writer Peter Kelamis. In addition to appearing a record 29 times on the CBC Radio smash hit The Debaters, Erica can be heard on CBC Radio's The Current as well as Definitely Not The Opera.

In 2013 alone, Erica was invited to perform at The Vancouver Comedy Festival, The Winnipeg Comedy Festival, The Halifax Comedy Festival and the world-famous Just For Laughs Comedy Festival in Montreal.

As well as being a club favourite across the coast, Erica is in high demand for conferences and corporate functions where she showcases her 'sugar-coated razor blade' observations about life.

She has traveled as far north as Alert, Nunavut to entertain the Canadian Forces as well as to Kandahar Airfield to entertain our troops.
